

Attendance at St John's

Your child's attendance in school is extremely important to us and to them. Please have a look at the information on this page to support you if you have concerns or would like more information around your child's attendance in school.

There have been lots of worries over illnesses recently, which is completely understandable. To help us return to our children attending school consistently, this website might help you.

Is my child too ill to go to school today?

School attendance

If a child is regularly absent, they may fall behind with learning, this makes attendance fundamental in making sure young people become successful learners. When children attend school consistently, they are more likely to do well in their work but also build strong relationships and feel connected with the school community. This helps to support and maintain a positive wellbeing for the child.

Good attendance also demonstrates reliability which will help prepare children for life beyond education and looks positive to future employers.

What does the law say?

By law, all children of compulsory school age must receive a full-time education that meets their needs and parents are responsible for making sure they attend school.
