

We thoroughly enjoyed Pyjamarama Day in school today and thank you for your donations to raise money for the Book Trust charity. We love reading at St John's and classes are timetabled each week to visit Allesley Park Library as well as enjoying reading for pleasure time in school and visiting our school libraries. Reading really is the gateway that makes all other learning possible and we thank you for your support in reading with children at home. Huge congratulations this week to Miss Ward, Mrs Davis and the Year 6 children. Every single child approached their tests with a positive mindset and an eagerness to rise to the challenge and showcase their learning in Reading, Maths and Grammar. We are so proud of you all! In worship on Friday we celebrated with lots of children, we prayed for our school and everyone who is part of it, and we learned a new word in Japanese. The word is 'oubaitori' (pronounced phonetically as 'oh-buy-toe-ree') and it means, "The idea that people, like flowers, bloom in their own time, and their own individual ways." A very apt quote this week where everyone has worked so hard to be the best they can be.

Congratulations to our Reading, Writing and Star of the Week award winners this week!

Congratulations to Aron, Emily, Samuel, Brooke, Connor, Aidan, Darcey, Lexi, Vincent, Rubin, James, Lilybeth, Harry, James, Jemimah, Annie, Carys, Ava, Zebe, Louis, Ewan, Aron, Hermela, Jessica, Miriam and Evie. We are very proud of you!
