Fluency

Read aloud simple sentences and books that are consistent with their phonic knowledge, including some common exception words.

Developing fluency to read texts that are consistent with their developing phonic knowledge, that do not require them to use other strategies to work out words.

To accurately read texts that are consistent with their developing phonic knowledge, that do not require them to use other strategies to work out words.

To reread texts to build up fluency and confidence in word reading.

To reread these books to build up fluency and confidence in word reading.

To read words accurately and fluently without overt sounding and blending, e.g. at over 90 words per minute, in age-appropriate texts.

At this stage, teaching comprehension skills should be taking precedence over teaching word reading and fluency specifically. Any focus on word reading should support the development of vocabulary.
For children still needing support with fluency, targeted intervention using guided and repeated reading strategies.
All KS2 children have a levelled book banded home/school reading book to practice both fluency and comprehension.
Whole class reading texts are levelled and targeted for the specific year groups.
